LAST NIGHT'S AMUSEMENTS.

"Nedrick" (Irish Artillery) at "Monte Cristo." "The Tinsoldier" at "Nedrick." Although the Opera-House contained a fair-sized audience last night, for the first presentation of "Nedrick." This play tells of a man who, having had a successful run in this city last season, Mr. Frank Mayo, the leading part, sustained his old-time reputation as an actor. He is well supported, Miss Kathryn Kiefer as "Hazel" and Miss Winnet as the "Fanny Zerk," who has lately made his debut on the boards, and an excellent piece of acting. The setting of the play is rich and tasteful. "Nedrick" will no doubt draw crowded houses with the "Tinsoldier" at "Nedrick."

Standing-room only was announced at Herzog's Opera-House long before the curtain went up last night. The attraction was "Nedrick." It is a one of those sketches of Irish character which brings out the humorous side of life. It is a play of good-natured fun, with just enough of pathos as a foil for the humor. The audience was kept in a roar of laughter during the entire evening and retired well pleased with the performance.

"MONTA CRISTO" AT THE NATIONAL.
A large audience witnessed Mr. James O'Neill's impersonation of "Monte Cristo" at the National Theatre last night. Although the play is an old one, it has lost none of its charm or originality. Mr. O'Neill's performance was a masterpiece of acting, and he was well supported by a highly sympathetic cast. The play was a success, and the audience was well pleased with the performance.

Ford's Opera-House was well filled last night with an audience that went home with a feeling of satisfaction. The production of "The Tinsoldier" was a masterpiece of acting, and the audience was well pleased with the performance.

The largest audience of the season was in attendance at the Dime Museum last evening, the occasion being the first appearance here of the favorites, Stephens and Gray, in their new play, "The Tinsoldier," which was admirably presented, with excellent support throughout, new and beautiful scenery and first-class appointments.

The complimentary benefit concert tendered Mrs. W. D. Allen by her numerous friends last night at the National Theatre was a very interesting entertainment. The audience, though not large, was very appreciative, and it was with difficulty that the rule of "no encores" was sustained. Those who participated were Misses Minnie Evans, Mollie Moore, Saml. Smith, Emma Guyton, Mrs. Fidelity and Messrs. Whipple, Fennell, Pugh, Collins, Daniel, Parkhurst, Forsyth, Bangs, Diehoff and Waldo.

St. Patrick's Temperance Society gave an enjoyable entertainment in the hall of Carroll Institute. The audience was large and the program was well selected, and included many well-known local amateurs. Miss Mollie Moore came in for the lion's share of the applause on her exquisite singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and responded to an enthusiastic encore with the "Last Rose of Summer." Dr. N. Frank White delighted the audience with a number of his inimitable recitations.

WEST WASHINGTON.

Anthony Kuhn, living on Thirty-first street near the canal, reports that a hen chicken coop some time last night five hens, valued at $2.50.

Mr. Lloyd Tavenner, who was bitten by a dog on Sunday last, is much better this morning.

The grand officers, accompanied by the Grand Lodge, F. A. M., D. C., paid their annual visit to the Odd-Fellows' Hall, last night at Masonic Temple, on Thirty-second street, which was filled by a large and enthusiastic audience. Rev. Mr. Jones delivered a very interesting lecture on "Masonry." The Masonic choir were present, and added much to the entertainment by their delightful singing. The grand officers complimented the lodge on their good work during the year.

After a most enjoyable evening the lodge repaired to the banquet hall, where refreshments were indulged in.

Terrible Immorality.

A terrible charge of immorality was brought forward this morning. An unrepentant colored man of middle age was behind the bars and charged in connection with two colored girls named Martha Miller and Maria Johnson, 14 and 15 of the age, respectively, with being vagrants. Officer Loftus testified to arresting them all sleeping in a woodshed on Maryland avenue southwest last night.

Quarrel About Making Coffee.
Vin. Brown, for scolding another colored man named Eli. Toher with two gallons of boiling water, was assessed $100 or three months. They were employed at Jarvis' confectionery store, and the row began about making coffee. The man passed and Brown threw the hot water on Toher, burning him in a frightful manner. He noted an appeal.
